NEW BOOK BY TIMOTHY TITCOMB.
CHARLES SCRIBNER, Brooks Building, No. 124 Grands, three doors east of Broadway, New-York, will publish on Saturday, New-Bord.

BITTER-SWEET.

By Dr. J. G. HOLLAND, Author of "Timothy Titcomb's Letters," I vol., 12mo., clott, 78 cents, full glit. $1 25.

"Bitter-Sweet." is an American poem, in its spirit, and in what may be called its machinery. The beneficer ce of the mission of well is the real subject of the poem, and this gives to it its pleasant and attractive name. The performance consists of representations of conversations, events and scenes occurring in the family mannion of an old Puritan farmer of Now-England, on Thanksying evening, and both story and lesson are given with tharming power, while the intimate treatment of them is marked by the freshess and originality which characterize the suthor of Titcomb's Letters.

Now ready, the Ninth Edition.

TIMOTHY TITCOM 3'S LETTERS TO YOUNG PEOPLE, SINGLE AND MARRIED.

1 vol. 12mo., $1; in full glit, $1 30. Ninth Edition.

The London Literary Gazette says: "We have never read a work which better inculcates the several duties and responsibilities of young men and women, married or single."

"Timothy Titcomb knows how to blend humor with seriouses, wit with gathos, the counsels of wisdom and morality with the impocent pleasantles of life. OPKNONS OF THE FRESS.

From the Courier and Enquirer.

The nother is evidently a man of literary acquirements, and he writes with a keen appreciation of the weaker points in female character in fashiosable circles. Those who can appreciate a well-writen tale, will find this one interesting."

From the Bieton Times.

"The author's ability is displayed in catching and transferring to his pages one phase of New-York society, an existence at once matter of fact and superficial, phodding and frivolous, possessing neither richness, fullness, nor depth, not refined nor yet quite course."

quite course."

From the N. H. Patriot.

"The Milesian father with his rich broque and passionate but leving temper, Father Reman, the family priest, and Virginia Randolph an unscrupulous flirt, are sketched with great spirit, and the descriptive parts are worthy of an artist."

From the Philadelinia Bundlin.

"A novel in which the Irish-Catholic element supplies the social outlines and most of the coloring. We commend it to those desirous of something new."

DR. SANGER'S HISTORY OF PROSTITU-

"To such grievances as society cannot readily cure, it usually forbids outerance, on pain of scorn; this scorn being only a sor of timeded clock to its deformed weakness."

[Currer Beil. Shirley.

This important work is the first serious attempt that has eve been made to collect together, into one volume, all the facts respecting the great social evil, Prostitution. It contains a brie summary of all the facts and estaticles given in the famous work of Parent Duchatelet, and in the more recent works by various authors on Prostitution in Eupland, Germany, &c. The subject of Prostitution in the United States is most increasing treated with copious statistics from the Police records and other author its sources of information. Dr. Sanger's official exp. remoe, and the opportunities opened to him by the Governors of the Alms Will necessarily become the text-book on this painful but vitally important subject; and which, as such must form part of the library of every Magistrate, Physician and Philanthrepist, not only in this country but throughout the civilized world.

A CADEMY OF MUSIC.—DON GIOVANNI.

PRELIMINARY ANNOUNCEMENT.

The public are respectfully informed that the most extensive preparations, which for some time have monopolized the care and anxiety of the Director, for the production of MOZART'S DON GIOVANNI.

are now completed, and that this grandest of all operas will be given on are now completed, and that this grandest of all operas will be given on with a more striking cast and ensemble than it has ever been performed in America, or in any European city, not even Loudon and Paris excepted.

Mile. PiccoloMin!

will sing the part of Zerlina. It will be the last character but two in which she will appear in New-York. The Director, who during his annual visits in Europe has watched the career of Mile. Piecolomini since she made her debut in London turee years ago, recommends it to the public as the most captivating part sie has yet appeared in, both as regards singing and her insimilable acting.

The attractions of this, the Director trusts, forever memorable performance are not confined to Mile. Piecolomini sions.

OTHER GREAT AND ADMIRED ARTISTS will appear, supported by a CHORAL AND ORCHESTRAL FORCE numbering upward of FOUR HUNDRED PERFORMERS.

Four Hundred Performers.

Four Hundred Performers.

CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

Whenever the Director, during the troublous times of last year, has appealed to the public, this appeal has been most generally responded to. He fouldly hopes that since that time no mistake in his management has lessened the kindness of which te has had so many proofs.

If not the entire public, those persons at least who take an interest in operatic matters cannot but be aware of the immense expenses incorred by the Director since the commencement of the present season, in bringing out a number of artists (one of whom attracts at present the world's attention, while the others the present season, in bringing out a number of artists (one of whom attracts at present the world's attention, while the others have not only appeared at the first theaters, but have likewise occupied in them a prominent position), in getting up a "mise en scene" which has placed the New-York Academy of Music above many a celebrated European operahouse, and in organizing a choral and orchestral force of which the country might well be proud. Those persons know that the expense of every performance has reached an average of $2,500 per night. The state expenses incurred for the "Don Giovanni" have increased this average to between three and four thousand dollars.

In view of these circumstances, the director thinks himself not only justified in slightly increasing, on this extraordinary occasion only, the regular prices of admission, but he hopes that the public will cheerfully pay the proportionately slight advance, and thus encourage him in prosecuting his plans for the future, which he trusts will inaugurate a new era in operamatters.

FRICES OF ADMISSION FOR DON GIOVANNI.

PRICES OF ADMISSION FOR DON GIOVANNI.

PRICES OF ADMISSION FOR DON GIOVANNI.

Admission to the Parquet, Balcony and first Circle, $1.50.

Reserved sents in Parquet and Balcony, $2.50 and $2. according to location. The Family Circle will be converted into reserved seats, at $1 each. Amphitments, $9 cents.

NEW PRIVATE BOXES.

The extraordinary favor which the new private boxes have found in the eyes of the public has particularly pointed them out to the speculators in opera tickets, who, by patiently waiting from an early hour until the box office is opened, have always managed to get hold of a number of them, and succeeded in selling them at premiums varying from $10 to $25 each.

It may be reasonably supposed that the attraction of the "Don Giovanni" night will increase the evil instead of leasening it. Mr. Ullman, therefore, respectfully samounces that, after mature deliberation, and after having consulted several gentlemen of standing, be has determiced to SELL THE PRIVATE BOXES AT AUCTION, and as a proof that his mattree in adopting this measure is not dictated by any mercentary views, nor suggested by self-interest, he will claim only
